Run No: 1145
Hare: Hash Quack
Venue: Subang Shooting Range
Date: 15th August, 2013
Scribe: Topless

Take Subang airport road and turn 3 o'clock at roundabout. Follow Hash signs heading towards Subang Shooting Range, go through the range leading to runsite by the river.

Run No: 1146
Hare: Topless
Venue: Desa Aman Puri
Date: 22nd August, 2013
Scribe: WaterBayee

From PJ head north on LDP go past One Utama and after the toll stay down and left. At the lights go straight - follow Persiaran Bukit Utama all the way to the end. At the T junction turn left on Persiaran Cemara and go all the way straight. There is a slight bend to the right where road becomes Persiaran Perdana. Keep going all the way straight until the round about at the end. Turn right and you are there. GPS co-ordinates 3.217013, 101.614474

Receding Hares, kindly check your run list attached to confirm your updated run dates.

As I was pissing...

....So now the Hazards have tasted the traditional Hash Mash ala Ninja's version. Yes this used to be the most popular makan after hash runs way back in the 70s and 80s. We are lucky that yesterday, it was served as finger food. Back then, this was the main course and there was no starters or finger food. I guess Ninja had to compromise and do it his version as the early hash mash was experienced by me in Seremban cooked by Colin Wooden the guitar strumming hash bad of Seremban. For the hash mash, each hasher was asked to bring a can of food stuff but no sardines and luncheon meat. Actually no pork and beef. So curry chicken, green peas, beans, potatoes etc.. They would all be opened and pour into a pot which of course would be mixed with onions, spices and so on. But the most important basic ingredient is BEER, No water is used to dilute and contaminate the mash. Since the ingredients are dependant on what hashers bring, so the taste of the mash was always different but differently good. In fact way back then the chef never even added any fresh chicken as Ninja did. WELL DONE NINJA.

THE RUN	PJHz 1144	Hare:	Run site: Pantai Hill Park
		Ninja	Run rating 6.5 by MabokHai
Venue: Pantai Terminal. 17.00 hrs. The short-haul flights are landing one by one. Some full, some quite empty. 17.45hrs: Even the delayed flights are in.The passengers almost identically clothed.one guy saunters around in golf shoes-probably upgraded to business class. 18.00hrs The passengers flow out the terminal. Most of them head out in a particular direction. 19.00hrs The major domo [the airport manager for the day] is busy conjuring hash mas[h].He fortifies it with skol. God bless him. 19.24hrs the passengers struggle back one by one after a dry run. 20.00hrs The terminal is almost full. the passengers partake in the mash.The amber fluid is also dispensed. By now the economy class beers are replaced with business class spirits! 20.40hrs The briefings for further take-offs and landings is discussed.A appointed chief shitting bull a.k.a. The emperor presides! 21.30hrs we adjourn for meals @ the terminal-plane food is basically crap. 22.00hrs Slowly the terminal empties with various take -offs for different destinations. 22.30hrs The terminal is eerily quiet even without hash quiet. Only a few stragglers remain.So there ends another great day. Bon voyage.See you @terminal Subang next week. adios HashQuack

THE CIRCLE	PJHz 1144	Grand Hazard	PissStop (DGHZ)
	8 th August	Hash Whip	Sodamn

On On

This was the Idol Fire run, not really a celebration run. ChichenFuck was trying to call for the circle. He was already drunk by this time so he was slurring and getting all his rituals mixed up. HashQuack finds east and circle was called. CK was manhandling the tools of office. PissStop. The deputy GHz was called to take the box.

PissStop who was also visibly pissed, decided to make all the announcements before he forgets. Started with maaf Zahir Batin and well wishes for Hari Raya. He reminded about next week's run in Subang Shooting Range. And the following week in Desa Aman Puri. CF was reminded not to talk louder than GHz. Cocky was given the honor on ice for having the balls to drink the first beer before the first runner was out. Looking at Cocky's scrotum, which was hanging longer than his dick, DGHZ reminded members not to eat too much century egg for it's the main cause of sagging scrotum.

Ninja the hare for the day was then iced for fucking up the run. It was above our 1.15 hours. Ninja donates his Hash Vest with 'HARE' written on it. The Hare of the day can use it. Cocky was again put iced for his racial remark about Gandhi was too dark. But HashQuack decided to sit on ice to replace Cocky. HashQuack must have enjoyed the icing as he has not been iced for a long long time.

PissStop self declared himself as Emperor Anthony. Slack gave a pair of silicon strapless bra to Emperor Anthony and CF was quick to use it on his head that made him look like a rabbi. But what was Slack doing with a pair of silicon strapless bra??? Looks like members need to do an annual gender check. There was a commotion about CockTeaser's hash name. Some were complaining it as a name meant for unmentionable.

MabokHai did the run rating. Even though, HashQuack was around but he declined as he did not complete the run. MabokHai iced PissStop for unilaterally trying to change CockTeaser's name. Munster was iced for teaching Roshen how to call On On during the run. Rating $1 + 1 + 1.5 + 2 + 1 = 6.5$ points.

Sodamn was the hash Whip. He put CF on ice for becoming more and more sloppy with his duties. A gentle but firm reminder to buck up. Slack was next for smoking when circle was called. MabokHai was iced for fucking the timing for the run. Actually according to Sodamn, the run could have been within 1.15. HungryGhost was put on ice because this is the hungry ghost month.

Emperor Anthony was back on the box for his closing. MabokHai was iced as a closing remark and SetengahBayee was asked to say grace but he failed...iced. Ninja then said grace and food was served on site.
